SOUTHBURY, Conn., Dec. 27.—

For the second time, this rural town made ready today to try two members of the German-American Bund on charges of violating the Connecticut law which forbids secular work on the Sabbath.

Gustav Korn of New Rochelle, N. Y., and Richard Koehler of Mount Vernon, N. Y., were arrested Sunday, Dec. 5, while allegedly clearing brush on the site of the Bund's proposed Camp Gen. Von Steuben here.
