

in 1932.

GERMAN BUND CAMP OPERATORS OUT ON BAIL

New York May 7—(AP)—At a hearing heavily guarded by police, Peace Justice Moses Drake of Suffolk county today set bail at $1,000 each for five officers of the German-American Settlement League.

The defendants, operators of Camp Siegfried at Yaphank, N. Y., an affiliate of the German-American Bund, were charged with neglecting to submit the league's membership list to the New York state department, as required by law.

More than 200 American war veterans, many of them in uniform, and about 500 other spectators crowded the courtroom at Bayshore, Long Island, while hundreds of others waited outside.