GOING HARD AS SNOW AND ICE BLANKET ROADS

12 Above Aid Falling Report of At News; Relief Agencies Are Taxed

AID MONEY EXHAUSTED Hundreds Work To Keep Highways Open; Trains And Buses On Schedule

By continued light snowfall, non-accidental traffic has been stopped since midnight were reported over the state.

Charles J. Shover, Cleveland city street commissioner, said "thick blanket snow" after 100 feet and 10 trucks cleared most of the city's heavily traveled streets.

Eleven inches of snow fell in 24 hours, U. S. Meteorological Service said the storm was the worst in the city in December since 1877.

Unprepared for the wintering season, many of the city's emergency services are being taxed.

Most emergency crews of snow clearing trucks are out on the streets. The temperature, which dropped to 21 degrees during the storm, has since risen to 28.

The cold wave which for the first two days left a trail of snow, sleet and ice, has now turned to rain and sleet.

Weather bureau observers said another mass of cold air was moving toward Texas and the southeast.

Another five inches from the west would mean a total of 15 inches of snow, but it is expected to be short-lived.

White House Festivities Come Doubly

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8.—(AP)—The White House this year will come in two—two family dinners, two parties for young people and two Christmas trees.

One of the dinners will be at the luncheon hour, when grandchildren of the President and Mrs. Roosevelt will attend. The other will be Christmas night for the guests.

There will be a children's party Dec. 27. Little Sara Roosevelt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Roosevelt, will share honors with her cousin, "Dill" Roosevelt, son of her father, James Roosevelt.

Mr. and Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., also will be present when they will spend Christmas day with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene S. Ford, near Wilmington, Del.

The first lady is going to bring back four trees, one on New York City for the Women's Trade League, one at Hyde Park, N. Y., and the two in the White House. There will be a big tree in the formal ball room and another, just for the family, upstairs.

On the night before Christmas Mr. Roosevelt will read Dickens' "Christmas Carol" in accordance with the family custom. Speeches will be made in the President's bedroom on early Christmas morning.

Incidentally, the White House gives Santa Claus a check of several kinds.

DU PONT PLAN WINS APPROVAL

Mr. John L. Lewis and William Green, without comment.

In the halls of congress, Chairman Douglas (D-N.Y.), of the house ways and means committee said he was in favor of the plan.

Mr. Norris (Ind.-Rep.), said "The plan has a few flaws. Let them (industry) go ahead with it. We don't need any government help to do it."

The only labor leader mentioned in the comment—Thomas G. Gilfer, Pittsburgh, first district president of the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers—said labor leaders would cooperate with any kind of a sensible plan if they could feel that it was in their own best interests.
