

The Tulsa Tribune

MARK TULSA A GOOD CITY FOR TOURS
Pulsar every morning except Sundays by the Tulsa Ok.
Address 416 West 10th St. Tulsa, Oklahoma

An event which creates faith does not decrease; therefore it is a miracle.—Shaw.
NO END OF OIL
FOUR thousand feet of pipe drilled down into the earth filled with mud. Then suddenly like Old Faithful in action, came a mysterious pressure that blew the four thousand feet of mud sky high.

Oil there is an end of oil. But it's here to find it. And this brings in another interesting physical phenomenon. More and more the presence of petroleum beneath the surface of the earth is not left to the geologists.

STIRRING CLASS HATRED
That a housing bill will be presented to the regular session of Congress by the administration is one of the frequent conclusions. The President hopes to check the present business recession with it.

BRAKES ON ALIEN MEDDLING
The New England town meeting is one of the oldest existing forms of democracy—as old as the United States government itself.

THE VARIOUS SCENE
By GEORGE CLARK
It is estimated that 50 per cent of the world's population is in the United States.

Did You Know—
What is going to happen if the government does not stop the various scenes, unscrupulous industry, etc., in the United States?

Rhym'n Time
By TOBY LAPORE
Men are silly things, and they are silly things, and they are silly things, and they are silly things.

A Thought
Let us not be deceived of words, for we are deceived of words, for we are deceived of words.

Thought of the Nation
The nation is a nation, and the nation is a nation, and the nation is a nation, and the nation is a nation.

THE TULSA TRIBUNE, TULSA, OKLAHOMA

HUGH JOHNSON Says:
WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 3.—Mr. Arthur Kruck, whose skill as a reporter is sometimes overcome by his faults as a courtier, holds me responsible for the administration's recent broadside at its business.

A Dozen Day
From File of The Tulsa Tribune
TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
From The Tribune, Jan. 3, 1913
Remembering with fondness and admiration the memory of the late Hon. Charles D. Harbo, who died on the 25th of this month, I have been thinking of the many things he did for the city of Tulsa.

FIFTY YEARS AGO
From The Tribune, Jan. 3, 1913
The Tulsa Tribune, Jan. 3, 1913
The Tulsa Tribune, Jan. 3, 1913
The Tulsa Tribune, Jan. 3, 1913

Did You Know—
What is going to happen if the government does not stop the various scenes, unscrupulous industry, etc., in the United States?

Rhym'n Time
By TOBY LAPORE
Men are silly things, and they are silly things, and they are silly things, and they are silly things.

A Thought
Let us not be deceived of words, for we are deceived of words, for we are deceived of words.

Thought of the Nation
The nation is a nation, and the nation is a nation, and the nation is a nation, and the nation is a nation.

BOAKE CARTER

SAYS
WHAT is Mr. Roosevelt trying to do? Swinging himself like a cat, swinging himself like a cat, swinging himself like a cat.

"ECONOMY" IN CONGRESS
Congress is always willing to approve a reduction of government spending—so long as it remains an abstract proposition.

LAYOFFS IN C. I. O.
The layoffs that have been reducing employment lately are tragic. Yet there could be no greater folly than to assume, as some of our radical spokesmen are doing, that these layoffs are due to the personal enmity, bad faith or general carelessness of the employers who are ordering them.

Thought of the Nation
The nation is a nation, and the nation is a nation, and the nation is a nation, and the nation is a nation.

Thought of the Nation
The nation is a nation, and the nation is a nation, and the nation is a nation, and the nation is a nation.

Thought of the Nation
The nation is a nation, and the nation is a nation, and the nation is a nation, and the nation is a nation.

Thought of the Nation
The nation is a nation, and the nation is a nation, and the nation is a nation, and the nation is a nation.

Thought of the Nation
The nation is a nation, and the nation is a nation, and the nation is a nation, and the nation is a nation.

Thought of the Nation
The nation is a nation, and the nation is a nation, and the nation is a nation, and the nation is a nation.

Thought of the Nation
The nation is a nation, and the nation is a nation, and the nation is a nation, and the nation is a nation.

What are we to do in such cases? Our laws guarantee freedom of speech, freedom of assembly, and so on, and extremely precious to us. Yet it is not pleasant to see them applied to the protection which the very people who would immediately destroy them if they should get in power.

What are we to do in such cases? Our laws guarantee freedom of speech, freedom of assembly, and so on, and extremely precious to us. Yet it is not pleasant to see them applied to the protection which the very people who would immediately destroy them if they should get in power.

What are we to do in such cases? Our laws guarantee freedom of speech, freedom of assembly, and so on, and extremely precious to us. Yet it is not pleasant to see them applied to the protection which the very people who would immediately destroy them if they should get in power.

What are we to do in such cases? Our laws guarantee freedom of speech, freedom of assembly, and so on, and extremely precious to us. Yet it is not pleasant to see them applied to the protection which the very people who would immediately destroy them if they should get in power.

What are we to do in such cases? Our laws guarantee freedom of speech, freedom of assembly, and so on, and extremely precious to us. Yet it is not pleasant to see them applied to the protection which the very people who would immediately destroy them if they should get in power.

What are we to do in such cases? Our laws guarantee freedom of speech, freedom of assembly, and so on, and extremely precious to us. Yet it is not pleasant to see them applied to the protection which the very people who would immediately destroy them if they should get in power.

What are we to do in such cases? Our laws guarantee freedom of speech, freedom of assembly, and so on, and extremely precious to us. Yet it is not pleasant to see them applied to the protection which the very people who would immediately destroy them if they should get in power.

What are we to do in such cases? Our laws guarantee freedom of speech, freedom of assembly, and so on, and extremely precious to us. Yet it is not pleasant to see them applied to the protection which the very people who would immediately destroy them if they should get in power.

What are we to do in such cases? Our laws guarantee freedom of speech, freedom of assembly, and so on, and extremely precious to us. Yet it is not pleasant to see them applied to the protection which the very people who would immediately destroy them if they should get in power.

What are we to do in such cases? Our laws guarantee freedom of speech, freedom of assembly, and so on, and extremely precious to us. Yet it is not pleasant to see them applied to the protection which the very people who would immediately destroy them if they should get in power.